FAIL TO VOTE ON "REBUKE"

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—The Senate committee on judiciary adjourned today without action on the sub-committee report, holding that the President had no authority to sanction the merger of the Tennessee Coal and Iron Co. with the U. BIG OCEAN LINER GROUNDS

NEW YORK, Feb. 24.—While trying to grope her way into New York harbor through a blinding fog today the steamer Kaiser Wilhelm II from Bremen ran aground on the edge of Gedley Channel and was stuck fast for several hours. There were nearly 1000 passengers on board. As the bottom of the bay is of a hard mud or sand, it is believed the steamer suffered no damage. The steamer was floated soon after noon.

AUTOMOBILE PARTY ROBBED BY TWO BOLD HIGHWAYMEN

MODERN DICK TURPINS SAY CHEERY "GOOD NIGHT" TO MEN THEY ROB OF $120

Return $20 to One Victim at His Own Request

IS Dick Turpin, reincarnated, haunting the suburbs of Oakland, to flatter and cajole the belated merry-makers of our fair city, the while he courteously persuades them, with the deferential assistance of a big black revolver, to part with their superfluous money and jewels? The police, in despair, have arrived at this conclusion, for there seems to be no other solution of the mysterious identity of the Chesterfieldian road agent, who, with ceaseless vigilance, is patrolling the highways which lead out from the eastern boundaries of the city.

Dick Turpin, or his modern counterpart, has a partner who rivals him in politeness and persuasiveness. Last night the suave pair visited the Tank saloon, half a mile this side of San Lorenzo, on the San Leandro road, and apologetically relieved the proprietor, William Drury, and four customers of $120. They made their appearance in the saloon just after the arrival of an automobile party from Alameda, consisting of Isidor Merle, brother-in-law of Assistant District Attorney W. H. L. Hynes, John Beigeveder, Joseph Wandscheid, Dr. O'Donnell and John Merlson, the chauffeur.

The newcomers had scarcely reached the bar when they were greeted from behind with a polite request to throw up their hands. The invitations were voiced in such soft tones that for a moment the members of the party thought it was a jest and two of them started to laugh. Their illusion was dispelled, however, for when they turned to see the speaker they found themselves looking into the long barrel of a soldier's revolver in the hand of a well-dressed man wearing a black mustache who smiled nonchalantly against the door post.

Wanted Some Haste
"Quicker, gentlemen," he said, still softly, but with a rising intonation caused them to hasten to obey. Then, with a signal to his partner, who stood on the

BURGLARS FLEE FROM SHOTS; CAPTURED

Made Targets by Storekeeper While in Act of Looting Window

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 24.—The crash of glass, as the large window of Samuel Ensler's store, 1016 Kearny street, was shattered at 6 o'clock this morning, aroused the proprietor, who sleeps in the back of the store, and he fired the contents of his revolver at two burglars who were busily stealing his goods on display. The shots attracted the attention of Policemen Ivatt, Clark and O'Brien, who ran up to see the culprits unloading a dash for liberty down Pacific street. They were captured after they had separated, on Sansome street, from blocks from the scene of the robbery, and taken back to the store.

Both were identified by Ensler. They gave the names of Isidore Sadowsky and John Holloway. Both are under 21.

SENATE FAVORS GOVERNMENT STEAMERS

Defeats Sanford's Resolution Striking Out Request to Congress

GOVERNMENT OWNED STEAMERS ARE APPROVED

Want Competition Between All California Ports and Panama

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 24.—The senate refused this morning to concur in the assembly amendments to Senator J. B. Sanford's joint resolution, which struck out the request to congress to establish a Federal line of steamers between California ports and Panama.

The senate thus goes on record a second time as favoring government owned steamships to compete with the transcontinental railroads in the handling of freight.

The vote on the amendment was 4 to 25, only four senators favoring the passage.

In appealing to the senate this morning to reject the assembly amendments Senator Sanford declared they destroyed its purpose. He said the resolution, if amended, would throw all the blame for the freight situation upon government officials, as it would simply call upon them to investigate the increase at once.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 24.—A special to the Express from Washington says Congressman McLachlan of this district today introduced a bill in the house providing for the establishment by the Federal government of a line of steamships to run between the isthmus of Panama and Pacific coast ports.

Provisions on Bill
The bill provides: "That the Panama Railway company be, and is hereby directed to establish and operate a line of steamers for the transportation of passengers and freight along the Pacific coast of the United States in connection with the line of steamers along the Atlantic coast and the Panama railroad, no money to be paid by congress, and to make regular calls at all the present Pacific coast ports of the United States, including Seattle, Tacoma, San Francisco, San Pedro and San Diego, from and to the western terminus of said railroad."

"That the said railroad company be, and is hereby directed to charter, purchase or cause to be erected steamers suitable for the purpose of steaming with a capacity of at least 5000 tons each and an actual speed of at least twelve knots an hour."

"That the sum of $10,000,000 or as much thereof as may be necessary, be and the same is hereby authorized to be expended out of the treasury of the United States for the purpose of this act."

"That the sum so expended or so much thereof as possible, be returned to the treasury of the United States, from the net earnings of the said Panama railroad company."

Argument Over Matter Is Held and Alameda County Women Win

BERKELEY, Feb. 24.—The clubwomen of Alameda county were aroused to a high pitch of wrath during the morning session of the conference of civics today by the attempt of visiting San Francisco women to address the convention in behalf of a proposed anti-graft movement.

Hot words flew thick and fast between the officers of the convention and the visitors, who were called "interlopers" and finally "graffers" themselves, because they dared to take up the time of their hostesses with an unwelcome subject.

The visitors were absolutely refused a hearing and the incident closed, with all concerned in high dudgeon. The trouble occurred when Mrs. J. E. Thurn, a Berkeley woman, asked permission to speak in behalf of the citizens' league of justice of San Francisco, of which Miriam Michelson is president. It was her wish to have the club women on this side of the bay join forces with them in the suppression of graft in San Francisco.

Called for Remarks

This speaker called upon Mrs. Snook to address the club women without the consent of the presiding officer. Mrs. Snook immediately commenced to speak, continuing after she had been called to order by the chairman.

Notwithstanding the reproof of the chair, she rose again, asking if they Seollard, proprietor of the Hotel Eddy, with former Mayor Schmitz, he interposed a challenge for cause, and sent a summons man and a telephone message after a witness named Donovan, a Mission cigar man, while the court waited.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 24.—Attorney Stanley Moore, in the hearing of the Calhoun case today, resumed his examination of Thomas Lockwood of 335 Broadway street, a tool maker, which was interrupted at the close of the session last night. The witness stated that he most assuredly would be willing to be tried by twelve men in his own frame of mind and could give Mr. Calhoun the presumption of innocence. He repeated his assertion of yesterday, that he had rarely talked about the case, and claimed he had paid but little attention to the big car strike of 1907.

"Do you belong to the League of Justice or any of those leagues that have been mentioned here?" queried Moore.

"No, sir."

"Are you acquainted with Attorney J. J. Dwyer?"

"No, sir."

"Or Mr. Cobb, the law partner of Mr. Dwyer?"

"No, sir."

"So far as you know, are you acquainted with anybody connected with the prosecution?"

"No, sir."

"Do you hear Mr. J. J. Dwyer or Mr. Hiram Johnson speak at a public meeting?"

"No, sir."

"Is there anything that occurs to your mind about which I haven't asked you, which would prevent you from being fair and impartial toward both sides?"

"No, sir. I could try the case on the evidence."

"Have you ever had any feeling hostile to Mr. Calhoun?"

"No, sir."

No Recollection

"What is the best or your recollection as to whether you have formed any opinion as to the guilt or innocence of Mr. Calhoun?"

"I have no recollection of it."

"In the consideration of the evidence that should be introduced here, would you allow any outside opinion or notion that you might have to influence you in this case?"

"I go solely by the testimony."

"In other words you go solely by the evidence and the law as given to you by the court?"

"Yes, sir."

Moore then questioned a little further regarding Lockwood's private affairs, asking him about the various firms with which he had been employed. It developed that this toolmaker had on one occasion served on the coroner's jury sitting in a United Railroads case, but had never had any suit on his own account against the company. Going back to the League of Justice, Moore inquired whether Lockwood knew any of the members, receiving a negative reply. He was not acquainted with either William J. Burns or any of the members of the carmen's union or other labor leaders. After saying again that he felt absolutely unbiased, the defendant's attorney passed him, and Assistant District Attorney O'Gara took up the examination.

Knows Tirey Ford

Counsel brought out the fact that the prospective juror knew that General Tirey Ford belonged to the same fraternal organization as himself, but he held that that would have absolutely no effect upon himself. All of the several attorneys and attaches of the defense were unknown to Lockwood and he asserted in response to a question by O'Gara that he had no relations of either himself or his wife with the United Railroads.

"Do you know a Mr. Lockwood who lives on San Jose avenue, an employee of the United Railroads?" questioned the attorney.

"No, sir," was the reply. "I have no relatives in the United States other than those of my wife. I was sworn to try this case as a juror. Mr. Lockwood, would the fact that the district attorney granted immunity to the supervisors cause you to acquit this defendant?"

"No, sir."

"Do you believe the opinion that you would refuse to believe the supervisors if they were sworn here?"

"No, sir."

"You believe that you would give their testimony all of the weight to which it is entitled?"

"Yes, sir."

"Are you opposed to convicting a man on circumstantial evidence?"

"No, sir."

Has No Prejudice

"I have no prejudice against circumstantial evidence, but it would have to be proved strong."

"If the evidence were pretty strong and you were convinced, you would convict, would you?"

"Yes, if the evidence were very strong."

"The prospective juror went on to say that he might possibly consider a man of that style of evidence if it were conclusive enough, but denied that he had a prejudice to discover his exact state of mind. He was asked a second test question by counsel, and declared that if he were a district attorney he would be willing to take twelve men in his state of mind if he wished to have a just and fair jury."

They Find Nothing

Evidently the prosecutor's gunshots men had found nothing against the salesmen since yesterday, as O'Gara's line of questioning was confined entirely to the fact that he had no belief that Mr. Lockwood had been influenced by the testimony of the defendant's attorney.

He was asked a second test question by counsel, and declared that if he were a district attorney he would be willing to take twelve men in his state of mind if he wished to have a just and fair jury."

He admitted in answer to certain of the questions that he had been struck on the prosecution, but held that he had not been influenced by any of them. Lockwood said he would not be influenced by the testimony of the defendant's attorney, but he had never discussed this case with anyone, and declared that he would not be influenced by the testimony of the defendant's attorney.

The court announced that he could occupy the rest of the morning hour with some matters he had to bring him, and adjourned until 2 o'clock this afternoon, when the prosecution was explicitly instructed to bring their witness on hand.

Afternoon Session

Promptly at 2 p. m. the afternoon session began.

"Excuse," said the court, after the names of the jury had been called.

"Call Mr. Donovan," declared Henny.

"What is your full name?" inquired the court.

"Timothy Donovan" was the answer.

"Where do you reside?"

"248 1/2 Broadway street."

"What is your business?"

"Cigar business."

"Do you know Mr. Seollard?"

"Yes, sir."

"Did you ever hear him express himself regarding the graft cases?"

"I never heard him express himself."

About the time Ruff and Schmitz were indicted he expressed opinion about them, but he did not know them.

"What is your opinion about them?"

"That is all I remember, having heard him say."

"Did you ever hear him say anything about the prosecution?"

"I don't think I ever did."

"That's all," concluded Henny.

"No question," declared Attorney Stanley Moore.

"That is all we have to offer on the challenge of the juror."

Reads From Record

"We will read from the record and insist that no showing has been made," responded Moore.

Attorney Henny then read at length from the record, claiming that had he known of the defendant's acquaintance with Schmitz and his having secured immunity, he would have called attention to it, but that he had not.

"Under the circumstances, he would be a little favorable to this defendant."

Last Night's Session

As THE TRIBUNE went to press last night, Attorney O'Gara was seated at the mission from Talisman Lintoth that he believed the supervisors had received money in the trolley matter, but he had not known in Alaska and I met him again."

The juror added that he had placed some insurance with Schmitz, but had not talked with him about the alleged graft prosecution. The juror had had a falling out in Alaska, but had in a measure purified himself up again.

"Do you know a man named Donovan out in the Mission?" pursued Henny.

"Does he keep a cigar store?" inquired Seollard.

"Yes, he keeps a cigar store," answered the juror after a consultation with Henny who sat next him.

"I know him."

"Have you talked with him about these graft cases?"

"No, sir."

The juror added that he would not be influenced by the testimony of the defendant's attorney, but he had never discussed this case with anyone, and declared that he would not be influenced by the testimony of the defendant's attorney.

The court announced that he could occupy the rest of the morning hour with some matters he had to bring him, and adjourned until 2 o'clock this afternoon, when the prosecution was explicitly instructed to bring their witness on hand.

Henny Challenges

"I have received additional information from the acquaintance of Mr. Seollard with Eugene R. Schmitz, which information I received since the juror was called. I desire now to propose a challenge under subdivision 2 of section 1073 of the penal code, based on his acquaintance with the defendant, and I desire to call Mr. Donovan, who I have said for, to prove that he had been influenced by the testimony of the defendant's attorney."

Good County Roads Movement

Some of the counties are planning a programme of public road construction entirely independent of the State roads plan formulated by Governor Gillett which is now pending before the Legislature. In Santa Barbara county the question of road extension is taken up by districts. On Friday, for instance, the voters in Montecito will decide at the polls whether or not they will bond themselves to bear the expense of constructing a system of good roads extending throughout the district. The County Board of Supervisors is also to be petitioned by the people of the Goleta valley to call a special bond election next month for permanent highway and bridge improvements.

On March 16th San Joaquin county will hold an election to vote on the question of issuing bonds amounting to $1,890,000 for the construction of a system of good roads radiating from Stockton in all directions, and it is confidently expected by the promoters of the bond measure that it will carry by a large majority vote.

Two years ago a Good Roads Bureau was organized in Stockton and advantage was taken of the offer of the United States government to superintend the building of object lesson roads where the necessary funds were provided. As an experiment the improvement of a part of the Mariposa road on plans prepared by R. M. Morton, the road expert of the Agricultural Department, was undertaken. In response to invitations for bids, the contract was awarded to the Good Roads Bureau and carried out under the supervision of Expert Morton. The results were so eminently satisfactory that the new system of county roads will be constructed, if the bonds carry, on plans prepared by the same federal officer and under his supervision.

The bond election is held under the Savage act which the Legislature passed two years ago. One of the features of this law is a provision for the appointment of a Highway Commission to select the roads to be improved and to prepare the plans and specifications for the work. The initiative, in fact, of all matters connected with the improvement of highways lies with the commission and not with the Board of Supervisors.

If the Gillett State Road Bill becomes a law the State bond question cannot be submitted to the people until next year. Meanwhile the San Joaquin county people are eager to get emancipated from the poor roads which now exist. It is expected, moreover, that the county road system will be so planned that it can be made to fit anyhow into the State road system whenever that is laid out.

More Trouble in the Balkans

Trouble is again brewing in the Balkans. The tension between Serbia and Austro-Hungary is becoming acute. It grows out of the annexation of Bosnia and Herzegovina by Austria following the declaration of Bulgaria's independence of the suzerainty of Turkey and against Serbia's protest. The two governments have since been on the verge of war several times. Intercession by neutral nations has alone saved them from flying at one another's throats many weeks ago.

Both nations have been assembling their military forces. Austria has her army on a war footing and now Serbia is adopting the drastic measure of refusing to issue passports to any able-bodied man under forty-five years of age. The object is to force all men of military age and capable of carrying arms to remain at home.

The French government after reaching an agreement with Russia undertook to make mediatory representations to Austro-Hungary in the interest of peace. It endeavored to induce Germany to co-operate in these representations; but the German government declined to participate in any suggestion to the Austrian government, although quite willing to bring pressure on Serbia to keep the peace. Russia has given warning to Serbia not to commit any act which might give offense to Austria and precipitate war, which means that if she ignores the hint and brings about a clash of arms she will receive no aid or sympathy from St. Petersburg. Germany's attitude indicates that she would be likely to aid Austria should there be a rupture of the peace. If, therefore, Serbia insists on going to war, it will be at the risk of being deprived of her independence and absorbed by either Austria or Germany or partitioned between them.

In his toast to the navy in honor of the return of the battleship fleet President Roosevelt said there would be no other such cordial welcome to an American fleet till it returned victorious from some great sea fight. Apparently he looks upon a foreign war as probable and contemplates the prospect with enjoyment. Let us hope the President is mistaken. It is certain that the vast majority of his countrymen have no wish for war. We are building a great navy on the theory that it is the surest guarantee of peace, and the pride felt by the nation in the seamanship and gunnery of our sailors is unmingled with any desire to see them employed in bloody conflict. Our national policy is the one projected for us by Washington—peace with all mankind, and honor and justice in dealing with foreign nations. Boasting of ability and willingness to fight is not a sign of amity or an invitation to friendship.

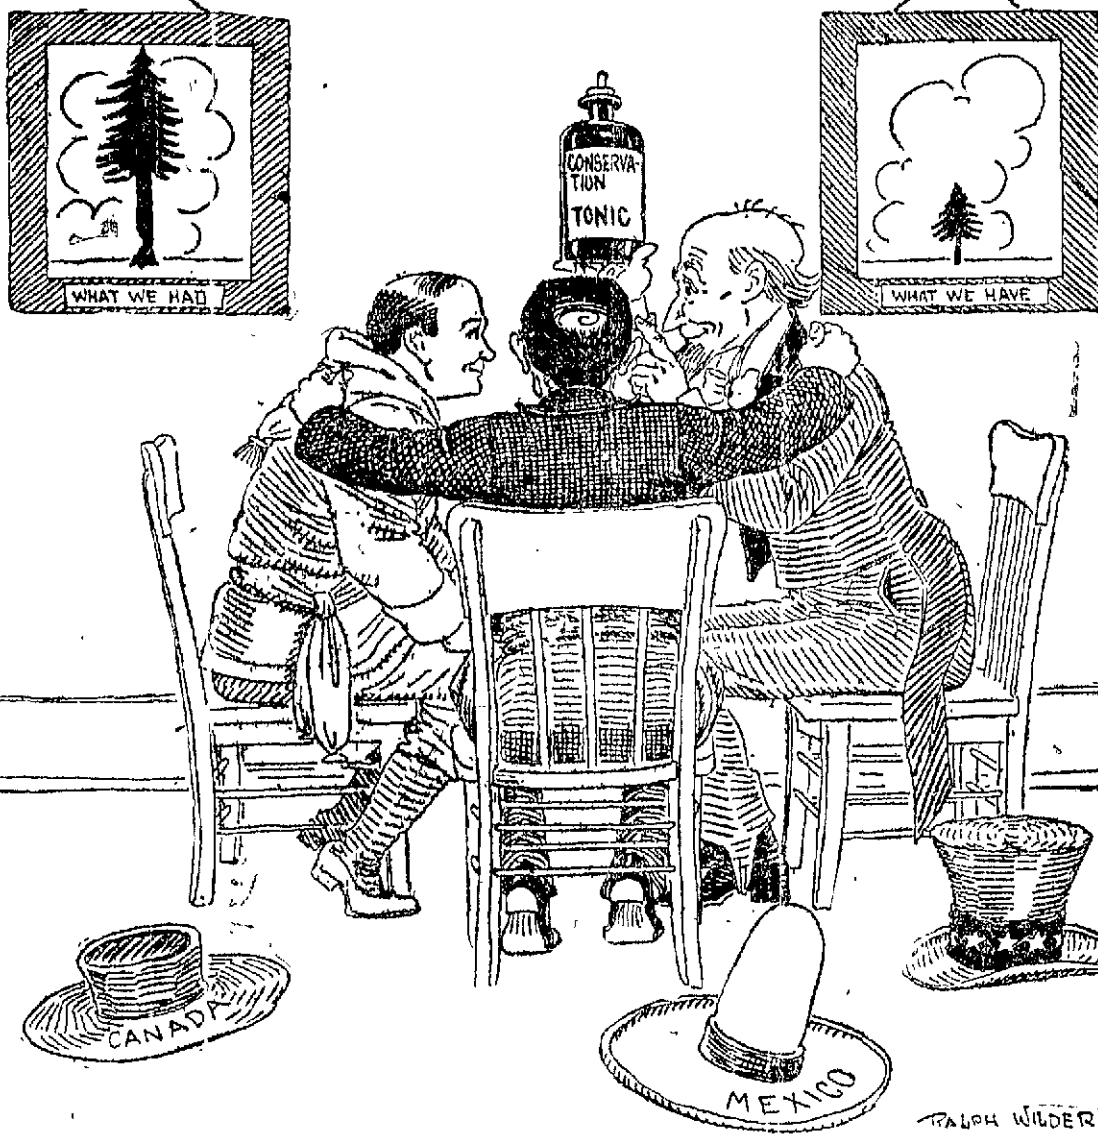

When the California wine industry is passing through a period of extraordinary depression, the Washington announcement that the President is about to proclaim a concession to Spanish sparkling wines of the minimum rates of duty provided for by the Dingley act, will scarcely be welcomed by California winegrowers. If any one is entitled to be favored it is the grower and manufacturer of the domestic product, not the producer of a foreign wine which comes in competition with the home article. What California winegrowers and manufacturers require is the enforcement of the higher rates of duty against all foreign wines, particularly at the present time when the industry is suffering so seriously from low prices and congested domestic markets.

Now that the supervisors have been advised that the drawbridges across the tidal canal are county roads and that they have the right to take them over from the War Department under the agreement made last year, something is likely to be done in the matter at an early day, and the canal opened to commerce. Whenever that programme is carried out a great industrial boom and development will be started on the banks of the waterway.

The town of Watsonville has obligated itself by a vote of 457 against 92 to contract a $40,000 bonded indebtedness for the construction and remodeling of schools. Watsonville is a thriving town in the heart of the greatest apple-producing district in the State, and it does not mean to be behind other communities in the matter of up-to-date school facilities.

Dr. Pardee's indignation at being accused of writing Enquirer editorials was natural and justifiable. It is very provoking to have gross reflections passed on one's intelligence and literary skill.

AT THE INTERNATIONAL CONSERVATION CONGRESS—"WE MUST KEEP WHAT WE HAVE LEFT, FELLOWS"

California Mortality Statistics

The monthly bulletin issued by the State Board of Health for the month of January shows that the mortality was greater than the births. Deaths totaled 2622, while the births were only 2405. An analysis of the record explains the reason of the excessive mortality. The white plague carried off 407 and heart disease 423. The mortality from heart disease has increased materially since the San Francisco earthquake and fire, and the high mortality from tuberculosis is traceable to the large migration to California from other States of persons who are afflicted with consumption in hopes of effecting a cure. Unfortunately the great majority of this class of health-seekers come to California when the disease has reached an incurable stage. The deaths which follow are, therefore, incorporated in the health statistics of the State and the latter figures with a much higher mortality rate than is fairly chargeable against it. Most of the deaths which occur from tuberculosis should, in fact, be charged to the States whence these invalids in the last stage of the disease came, in order to do proper justice to California. Through the enormous influx of consumptives into Southern California, that section has become, in fact, a vast sanatorium for this class of invalids, and all of the communities have been compelled to adopt rigid regulations in self-protection.

In the Princeton elections the colored vote is quite a deciding factor, and no one was keener than Uncle Jimmy, the apple man to profit by this opportunity. One day after an unusually vigorous contest he was asked: "Well, Uncle Jimmy, how much did you make yesterday by an honest day's voting?" "I made $8," he replied. "Whew! that was high! Eight dollars a vote!" No, sir; not a vote. The Republicans gave me $5 and the Democrats $3. "But you couldn't vote for both?" "No, sir." "Then, how did you vote, with such good friends on each side?" "I voted for the Democrats." But the Republicans paid you $2 more. "The Democrats weren't so corrupt, sir."

Mismark was equally subtle when he was asked whom he thought to have been the ablest plenipotentiary at the congress of Berlin. "I don't know about the ablest," he replied with a grin, "but the next ablest was certainly Lord Beaconsfield."

STEEL WAR FELT IN WALL STREET

Shares Decline With Crash Similar to '07 Panic—Only Speculators Hurt

NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—Wall street learned for the first time yesterday that the United States Steel Corporation had cut the price of steel. Only one week before the announcement was made the United States Steel Corporation's contract, which calls for $12,000,000 of more worth of material annually, expired and was not renewed. Other heavy buyers let it be known that for the next year at least they would purchase in the open market.

It was reported that smaller independent companies were cutting prices and making contracts to furnish steel for the current year at figures materially lower than those charged by the United States Corporation. Bethlehem, Lackawanna, Pennsylvania, Cambria and Jones & Laughlin companies.

For this reason war was declared, and it is to be continued until these little fellows surrender or go to the wall. When this information permeated Wall street there was a frenzied selling of United States steel stocks, which resulted in sensational declines and evidences of a morbid panic. The stampede of security merely means the precipitate reaction of an overinflated market to levels nearer intrinsic values. Nobody has been hurt but the speculators.

New Flesh Colored Product That Heals and Hides Skin Imperfections.

A peculiar feature of posam, a new skin discovery, is that it is naturally flesh colored and contains no grease, so that when used on the face for the complexion, or for pimples, red noses, or any other inflammations, blanchises or discolorations, its presence cannot be detected. It can thus be applied in the day time, the natural color of the skin being immediately restored and the actual healing and curing process accomplished in a few days. It can be had of any pharmacy who sell pure drugs. The Owl Drug Co. make a specialty of it. Fifty cents' worth will answer either for the troubles mentioned or in curing ordinary cases of eczema. Itching stops at once.

The Emergency Laboratories, No. 32 West Twenty-fifth street, New York, are the sole dispensing agents for posam in the United States, and will send an experimental quantity free by mail in plain wrapper to all who write for it. This will show results after an over-night application.

SUPPLEMENTAL STATE FAIR IS ASSURED OAKLAND

COMMITTEE IS IN FAVOR OF MEASURE

Governor Gillett Will Sign the Document When it Reaches Him

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 24.—In the Assembly this morning the committee on Ways and Means unanimously recommended for passage the bill appropriating $10,000 for the supplemental State Fair at Oakland. The recommendation was adopted.

This action assures the holding of the fair in question, because it is understood that Governor Gillett will sign the bill when it reaches him.

RE-ARRESTED ON BEING ACQUITTED

On Technical Grounds Court Instructs Jury to Acquit S. G. Henderson

A jury in Judge Harris' court acquitted S. G. Henderson this morning after being instructed to do so by the judge. Henderson, charged with felonious embezzlement on Feb. 1, of Mrs. Lucy B. Allison, who died, and secured $1800 of her money to put through a series of realty deals. Mrs. Allison claimed that Henderson lost the money gambling in stocks and bonds. The specific charge was for the loss of $300.

Immediately after the acquittal, a complaint charging Henderson with grand larceny was sworn to and served. Henderson was again taken into custody of the sheriff by Judge Harris while seated beside his attorneys.

Technical Defense

Attorney A. F. Ellis, defending Henderson, advanced a highly technical reason in demanding the discharge of the defendant. Ellis argued that the complaint charged felonious embezzlement while Henderson was acting as agent for Mrs. Allison, but the attorneys contended that all the evidence showed that Henderson had been agent for Crown & Lewis realty dealers. Judge Harris, taking this view, instructed the jury to acquit.

After debating an hour the jury asked further instructions and then Judge Harris informed them that he had concluded that the court would be obliged to set the verdict aside under the law. At 12 o'clock the jury returned their verdict of acquittal.

In the morning Deputy District Attorney charged Henderson with grand larceny.

The most damaging bit of testimony given was that of Attorney Hugh McElrich, who said that Henderson had admitted to him that he had lost Mrs. Allison's money in stock gambling and playing the races. McElrich's testimony made such an impression with the jury that one of the jury afterward said it was a shame to acquit Henderson on any ground.

JEALOUSY CAUSES DEATH TO THREE

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 24.—As the result of a fit of insane jealousy, the bodies of Mrs. Frank Woods, 55, William Ludford, 45, and William Hens, 21, are in the morgue. The two former were shot to death by Hens, who then ended his own life.

William Hens was a building engineer employed by the Edison Electric Works. Ludford and the woman were slain in a refugee shack at 331 Pennsylvania avenue, in the District, where they had been living together for several months. After the tragedy Hens walked with apparent unconcern to a hardware store several blocks away, purchased another revolver and then went to the home of his brother, Fred Hens, at 110 Mendocino avenue, where he killed himself.

Mrs. Eva Curran of 311 Pennsylvania avenue and J. W. Dexter, who lives directly across the street from the scene of the murder, were attracted by shots and rushed into the Ludford house a few minutes later. They found Mrs. Woods lying in a bed in the room, the door of the front room being open. Ludford had been seen running out of the front door and around to the rear of the house directly after the first shot was fired, was sprawled against the back fence on the street.

Mrs. Curran notified the Police Department at once and also called Dr. W. E. Bull of the Union Iron Works Hospital. Dr. Bull arrived in a few minutes, but both were dead. Ludford was shot three times through the chest one bullet having penetrated the heart. Mrs. Woods was shot through each breast. According to Fred Hens, his brother came into the house while he and his wife were at dinner. His mother was asleep. William Hens, who was with them with a cherry "feller" and then went on upstairs. Less than a minute later they were startled by a shot, and hurrying to his room found him lying across the bed dead.

TAFT READS MESSAGE TO PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT

Address Is Strong One, It Is Said, and Contains About 5000 Words

NEW YORK, Feb. 24.—With the most important news feature of the Taft cabinet held in abeyance—the selection of a secretary of the treasury—President-elect Taft today took advantage of his coveted opportunity to catch up with his correspondence and prepare a portion of the inaugural address he has contracted to write.

The inaugural address of Taft received its final revision today. The document is a declaration of the policies which the new administration will endeavor to carry out.

The address contains approximately 5000 words and will occupy little more than an hour in its delivery. The address will be read not only to the men who have accepted cabinet places and received their hearty approval but Taft has also read the paper to Roosevelt and others of his personal friends and advisers. It is pronounced strong.

Taft's cabinet was few in number, but in being generally understood and

Franklin McVeigh, Likely

CHICAGO, Feb. 24.—That Franklin McVeigh of Chicago, as previously mentioned, will be secretary of the treasury in the Taft cabinet is believed by Mr. Taft's closest business associates. The fact that he broke his custom of years in not attending the first meeting of the board of directors of the Commercial National Bank of which he is president, is regarded as evidence of his acceptance. Mr. McVeigh was personally non-committal on the subject but the absence of a denial at this late date is regarded as significant. In order to be qualified for the portfolio it would be necessary for Mr. McVeigh to sell his bank stock and sever his official position with the institution. That he is quickly preparing to do so is believed by those in the best position to know.

GONZALES ACTED QUEER, SAYS M. D.

Testimony Offered, Showing Unsoundness of Mind of Late Capitalist

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 24.—When the court of the late Dr. M. D. Gonzales, who died last week, was called upon to testify, much testimony was produced showing how the widow, Mrs. Loretta O'Brien, who before her marriage had been a very successful business woman, had been wronged through the unsoundness of her late husband's mind.

Dr. Gonzales, of Salfinas City, testified that two weeks before the doctor died he had made his will, leaving his estate of $250,000 to his wife and daughter, Anita, who is the offspring of the doctor. Dr. Gonzales died in the Police Hotel December 6, 1907. When his last will was read it was discovered that he had bequeathed the bulk of his estate to his wife, Anita, and to his daughter, and the remaining $100,000 to the 46 grandchildren of his half-brother, Francisco Rico. It is in this portion that the widow, Mrs. Loretta O'Brien, who before her marriage had been a very successful business woman, had been wronged through the unsoundness of her late husband's mind.

Dr. Gonzales, who was a director in Gonzales bank in Gonzales, Monterey county, said that he had felt despondent at the time he took making his will, and that he realized he would not live long, as he had a fatal ailment.

ATTELL AND COULON MAY BE MATCHED BY COFFROTH

Clever Little Fellows May Make Up Card for Mission Street Arena--Battling Nelson on Way Here.

By EDDIE SMITH.

SEVERAL times during his career as a pugilist Monte Attell has boosted himself into favor with the fans of pugdom, but never before has he got in half as strong as he is today. The defeating of Jimmy Reagan is the cause of it all and this fact would never have done for the Hebrew boxer what it has had the contest been anything but the sensational event it was.

Owing to the fact that Abe Attell has lost much of his reputation for gameness by his stalling and running, to say nothing of the brother Caesar, who is the champion of all quitters, Monte lost much of his reputation for gameness, but the showing of Washington's Birthday would make it appear as if Abe and Caesar would be well off if they had a little of the grit that Monte possesses.

Jimmy Coffroth has set about trying to match Johnny Coulon and Monte Attell for a Saturday afternoon contest at his arena. The best boost that one can give that contest would be to say, "put me down for some seat," and that is just what I would say to Coffroth if he landed it.

Reagan's Condition

Coulon has been going over the country posing as the bantam-weight champion of the world and has shown enough class to make it appear to the Eastern critics that it is his right to the title. It is the opinion of many on the coast that we have just the man or men out here to take the measure of this very clever little fellow, however we get him out and give Mr. Attell a crack at him.

Monte will make 110 pounds for the champion, and as this is only one pound over the recognized bantam-weight limit Coulon should have no kick coming. Reagan wants another chance at Attell and his manager, Charlie Cleaver, has issued a challenge for another contest for a $1000 side bet. Cleaver says that the boy was not in the best of condition, and that had it not been for the disappointment of the fans and Coffroth, he would never have sent Jimmy into the ring. It was rumored that the boy was sick, but it was never confirmed. Reagan was suffering from an ailment a few days prior to the contest, but many of the critics, and especially myself, gave Cleaver credit for having too much sense to put a young fighter, such as Reagan, into the ring unless he was in the right condition. If the little fellow was sent into the ring with such a tough fellow as Attell, without having been in the right condition, he would have been a great deal of trouble to his manager, but he was, indeed, wrong to get such a fast coming youngster beaten just at this time.

Neil Is Challenged

The winning of Al Neil over Ed Whitney has attracted attention all over the coast, and the veteran is once again going through the novel experience of being challenged by a fellow from the other side of the coast, and also of all colors. The North End Club has announced that they may use Neil in their contests of next month and that they would like to have a likely opponent for their member, Ralph Galloway, has sent word from the south that he is willing to try and redeem the black race through a contest with Al Neil, and Montana says that he is willing to show that there are plenty of white men who can beat Neil. Neil will, no doubt, take Sullivan if given his choice, for he has seen him fight and can beat him easily in an open Galloway, who is a mighty tough proposition.

Galloway has been beating all the big fellows he has lay his hands on for the any of our advice he will let him alone.

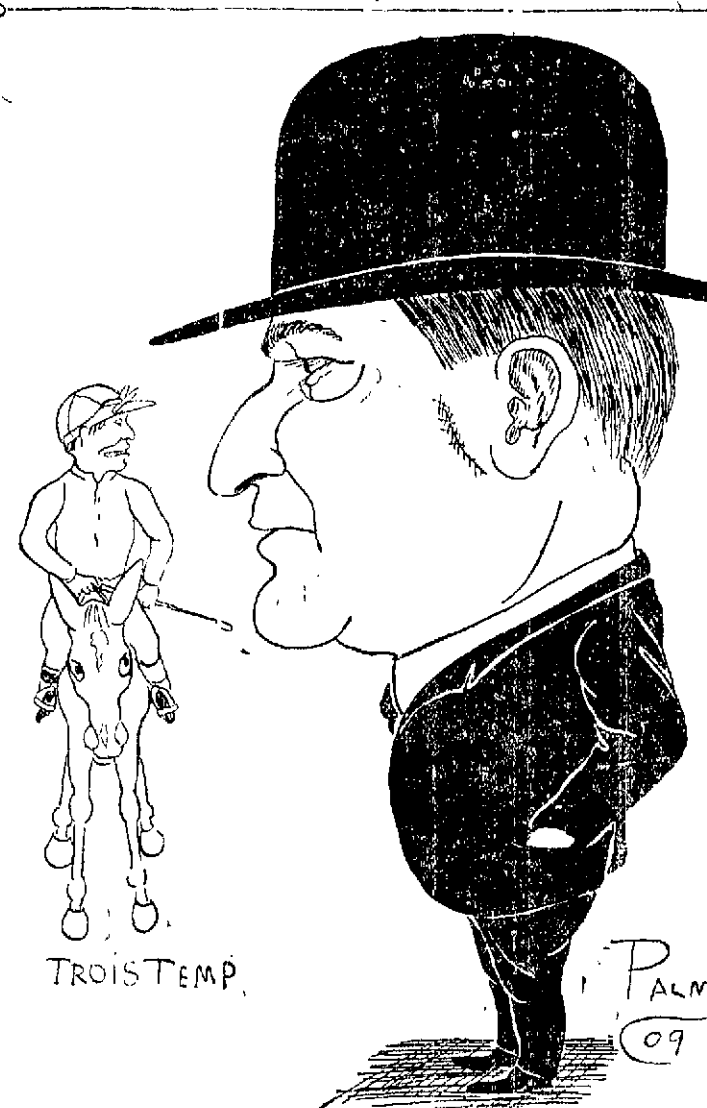

Clifford Challenges

Jack Clifford, the Grass Valley lightweight, has returned from a six months' trip to Arizona, where he has been working as a blacksmith. Clifford is particularly anxious to get on in a contest in San Francisco, and today or tomorrow he will arrive with a six count, and will fight with John Clark, which, he says, can go as a side bet with Murphy, Powell or Rogers. Clifford has gained about ten pounds since going to Arizona, and he is in the pink of condition. The Valley fighter thinks that he has discovered the fault he has always shown in his condition, and with the $1000, part his own and part a college loan he is willing to try his hand on any of the local stars.

Nelson at Los Angeles

Battling Nelson arrived at Los Angeles yesterday afternoon and attended the Volcanic-Webster contest last evening. The Battler announced that he would be in San Francisco by Sunday and that he would be ready to take on any of the light weights in the business.

The San Francisco team showed no class whatsoever. The locals fared with them. Their victory puts them through to the finals of the championship.

For the second time the Sacred Heart five and the St. Mary's College team opposed each other, and again the 130-pound team from across the bay were on the long end of the score, which stood at the end of the contest, 35 to 16. The first game of the evening between the Holy Angels and the St. Mary's team was the best of all, being won by the former by the score of 25 to 24. The audience was kept in one continual state of excitement throughout and it was only at the end that game was decided.

Today's games are:

Champion 5 Coming

The Oregonians of the Dallas, one of the best basketball teams in the United States, are on their way here after a glorious season in a record-breaking tour through the West. They will play a series of games with the representative five of the bay.

On March 1 the Oregon players will meet the Santa Cruz Young Men's Christian Association team, and the acceptance of their challenge will probably be the visiting players opposing either the Los Angeles Y. M. C. A. team or the Stockton All-Stars, whichever team is victorious in the first game for the championship of the Young Men's Christian Association. This latter game will also be a regularly scheduled game in the uncompleted class of the P. A. A. tournament.

The Oregon players started on their tour of the United States on December 25 last and have played in all a total of forty-five games, being returned the victors in forty of the contests.

Among the members of the team, Reed, who plays forward, is a sure shot at the basket. On this long tour he has averaged eight baskets to the game and has thrown 55 per cent of his foul shots. Shaw at center is one of the best at that position in the United States. Benton at forward is also a sure shot in the game. In all the games played.

'Bat' Nelson Is Ready to Box

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 24.—In a one-sided four-round affair Al Volquist defeated 'Bat' Nelson last night at McCarroll's Pacific Club. Volquist was too much for his opponent and hit him with no science was displayed by either boy. It being a shattering match all the time. Battling Nelson, accompanied by the sporting manager, Dick Galligan, an eccentric individual, made his appearance during the fight and was given a noisy reception. He referred one of the preliminary questions to the referee, stating that he was ready to meet Volquist or any other 135 pounder in the world but before there is any contract making he will want to see the money that will be paid for the fight.

A peculiar feature of the night occurred in one of the preliminaries between Dick Galligan and Frank Nelson. Galligan, who is a well-known sportsman, had a few minutes' conversation with Nelson after a few minutes' conversation with Nelson. BOSTON, Feb. 24.—The best Al Kibicki, the Michigan giant, could do against John Wiley of Chicago in a twelve-round fight was in fact the only one of a considerable disadvantage, on account of his opponent's short stature.

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 24.—Ray Brownson, the crack lightweight of Indianapolis, expects to leave today for New Orleans to meet a challenger for the twenty-round bout Friday night, March 5th. All the training for the match will be done at New Orleans.

PROV. N. Y., Feb. 24.—George V. Hopkins of the Irish American Athletic Club of New York lowered the world's record for the five mile event at the local athletic meet Monday night in the local arena. His time was 24 minutes 15 seconds. The best previous record was 25 minutes 15 seconds, held by Tom Collins.

Signs League Player

NAPA, Feb. 24.—Manager E. H. Rayner of the Napa baseball team, announced yesterday that he had signed Tracy Houz, formerly pitcher for the San Francisco Coast League team and the Santa Cruz State League team, to play for the Napa team this season. Houz, who was with Santa Cruz in 1908, will be on the recording end. Russell of Napa will play first base, and Royce of Santa Cruz will play second base. The team will be even stronger than that of last year.

Star Fielder To Play Here

The welcome news was received over the wire this morning that Frank Carroll, star outfielder of the New York League, who was drafted by Oakland last fall, had left Troy, New York, to report for practice here on March 1, Monday next. Carroll will arrive in Chicago in time to take the White Sox special, which leaves that city Friday evening and is due to arrive here Monday evening.

For a time it was feared that Carroll would not come to the Coast, as he was one of the best of the local players to be heard from, but he finally wrote that he would be on hand and would give Oakland his best brand of ball. The Oakland management feels that it has landed a crackerjack in Carroll, as for two seasons he has led the New York State League in stolen bases and runs scored. He is an excellent player and should be credit to the Oakland team.

That he is well thought of in the Coast is shown by the fact that at least one big league club has been watching his work since he was drafted here.

Now that Carroll is on the way here, the Oakland Club is assured of having two outfielders to pick from in making up the team for the coming season. Carroll, Van Halter Adams (nicknamed Howard Murphy) and "Duffy" Lewis. It will be a matter to pick the best from these, but it is practically certain that Carroll will make the team.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 24.—The North American this morning prints the following: Today at noon the Philadelphia National League Baseball Club will pass into the ownership and control of Contractor James P. McPherson. McPherson, who is a well-known sportsman, has been in the management of the team since it was founded by William Murray, the present manager.

All indications point to the retirement of William J. Sullivan from active participation in the affairs of the club, but supervision of the team will remain with the hands of William Murray, the present manager.

"Billy" Lange, the famous ball player, whose private affairs and fans have long been a topic of conversation, is in this country, came within an ace of being a grand jury yesterday in San Francisco. Only pressing business saved him.

Catcher "Billy" Sullivan of the Chicago American league team has signed his 1909 contract with President Comiskey.

The National Baseball Commission has decided to allow the reinstatement of E. C. McDonald of the New York National League team, who was suspended for 1908. McDonald has failed to report.

Local Athletes Run Marathon

SEATTLE, Feb. 24.—The big marathon race, that was held here Monday, was won by Ed Davis in 2 hours, 43 minutes and 16 seconds. The runner-up was J. C. He made the entire distance of 26 miles and 385 yards in 3 hours, 43 minutes and 16 seconds, which is very good time. He could have covered the run in much better time had he not been so tired.

The last five miles he walked. Fred Walby of the Portland Y. M. C. A. came second and Walter Spangler of the Seattle Athletic Club, third. The conditions were something terrible. It was raining and the track was so wet that it was difficult to run. The runners were very tired and the race was very hard.

None of the three local entrants, Francis Brownell, Max Hartman of the Oakland Athletic Club, or Charles Stone, of St. Mary's College, were in the race. They were all out of the race due to injuries and mishaps during the running. Hartman was out of the race due to a sprain in his leg and Stone was out of the race due to a sprain in his arm.

FAIR IN OAKLAND SEEMS ASSURED

Committee Favors Appropriating $10,000 to Bring State Exhibits to This City

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 24.—Oakland will hold a supplemental State fair in Idora park in the latter part of September. This was decided by the committee on ways and means of the Assembly when there was a unanimous expression of approval of the plan outlined for the undertaking by E. P. Miller of this city.

The formal action of the committee agreeing to an appropriation of $10,000 for the purpose of carrying out the project was not taken when the hearing of Miller was brought to a close, but it is expected that there will be a number of subjects before the committee which had to be discussed with dispatch.

There is no doubt that the appropriation will be recommended for the reason that all the members spoke highly of the project, some of them going so far as to declare that there was so much merit in the proposition that it ought to be extended to other sections of the State.

There was a large attendance of the members of the committee and Bob Beardslee was in the chair. Assemblyman Matt of Oakland introduced a bill, which made a business-like statement of the plan proposed by the people of Oakland. It was the desire to have a supplemental State fair in this city. There had been an appropriation made to the State Agricultural Society in the sum of $50,000 for the purpose of holding the next State fair in this city. Oakland's desire was to have that appropriation increased by one-half or $10,000, which would be used for offering premiums for the next two years at the fair. After the fair should be given in this city the exhibits would be moved to Oakland and displayed at Idora Park. A few hundred dollars would be required out of the appropriation for the purpose of purchasing a supplemental tent, but the rest of the money would be used as a means of inducing exhibitors to display their wares and notices in agriculture and the industrial arts.

To Divide Receipts

The State would be under no expense, save in making the appropriation and after a certain sum had been taken in at the gate, the management would divide half and half with the State Agricultural Society.

It was estimated that there would be 200,000 people to visit the fair and at 25 cents each, this would represent receipts of $50,000. There had already been two successful county fairs in Oakland and there was no doubt that a third one could be maintained and this, allied to a State fair, would mean a tremendous attendance and a financial success.

CLEVER CRIPPLE WORKS "SURE THING" GAME

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 24.—He had only one hand and one leg, but he was able, by an old "sure thing" process, to win with the aid of a confederate, George Roberts, a recent arrival from Arizona, out of $36.50 of his hard earned savings.

Roberts was about to purchase a ticket for Coos Bay in the office at 4th and street, when he was approached by the cripple, who spoke to him about the "sure thing" game. He had just won $36.50 from a young man, and he was about to leave when he was stopped by the cripple, who was a young man, slim, smooth shaven and about medium height. The latter claimed to have a sure thing on the races and the two journeyed to the racetrack at Del Mar, California, where Roberts spent his $36.50, and since then has seen nothing of his two new found friends.

GILLET DISCOVERS DEFECT IN MEASURE

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 24.—Governor Gillett found a minor defect in Assembly Bill No. 172, introduced by Hans of Fruitvale, for the purpose of enabling people residing in unincorporated cities and towns to provide for themselves the benefits of free public libraries. He has pointed out to Hans the defect and explained how the same might be remedied.

The Assemblyman accordingly has prepared another bill with the defect corrected and introduced the measure in the Assembly today.

The defect which attracted Gillett was the fact that the library trustees were to fix the amount of the tax to be levied by the supervisors for the maintenance of the library. That, however, would mean that the supervisors were delegating to the board their authority to fix the sum in question. The library board, however, can do only just as other boards similarly situated can do and that is merely to recommend to the supervisors how much may be needed for the library support.

S.S.S. RHEUMATISM FOR

Rheumatism is caused by an excess of uric acid in the blood, which gradually gets into the circulation because of indigestion, constipation, weak kidney action, and other irregularities of the system which are sometimes considered of no importance. This uric acid causes an inflamed and irritated condition of the blood, and the circulation instead of nourishing the different portions of the body, continually deposits into the nerves, muscles, tissues and joints, the irritating, pain-producing acid with which it is filled. Rheumatism can only be cured by a thorough cleansing of the blood, and this is just what S. S. S. does. It goes down into the circulation, and by neutralizing the uric acid and driving it from the blood, effectually and surely removes the cause. S. S. S. strengthens and invigorates the blood so that instead of a weak, sour stream, causing pain and agony throughout the system, it becomes an invigorating, nourishing fluid, furnishing health and vigor to every part of the body and relieving the suffering caused by this disease. S. S. S. being a purely vegetable blood purifier, is the surest and safest cure for Rheumatism in any of its forms. Book on Rheumatism and any medical advice desired sent free to all who write.
